As part of a lean, highly productive, and performance-oriented academic organisation, your duties will include course delivery, contribution to programme/course and module developments. You will also play a key role in student engagement and satisfaction while providing academic and personal support to the students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. The student facing role requires a strong physical presence in the Centre for Islamic Finance in order to maintain our 9 to 5 open door policy. The University is a teaching intensive and research informed institution and you will be expected to undertake research and scholarship relevant to your areas of expertise.

Applicants must hold a good honours degree and, normally, a PhD in a relevant discipline (or within the final year of submission). Applicants should indicate the name of the awarding institution and completion (or expected) date of their PhD. A teaching qualification or membership of the Higher Education academy (or willingness to achieve this) is a requirement. A crucial aspect for the role-holder will be the ability to contribute to the research/enterprise activities of the respective Academic Group and publish in peer reviewed journals.

An application form, job description and person specification can be viewed on our website: <http://www.bolton.ac.uk/Vacancies> or requested by email: jobs@bolton.ac.uk. Alternatively, please telephone our 24 hour answering service on extension 3579 (Please leave your home address details). Please remember to quote the position reference number.

If you would like further details about this role, please contact Professor Mohammed Abdel-Haq, Director of the Centre for Islamic Finance on 07881506785.

Applicants need to be aware that only a completed application form will be considered, unless it is specifically indicated in an advertisement that a CV will be accepted. Where appropriate, you should include a list of all publications when submitting your application. Please ensure you quote the position reference number on all documentation submitted.

If an applicant is interested in more than one vacancy, a separate application form must be submitted for each vacancy to ensure that the individual role requirements are addressed.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK, for more information please visit <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>. No agencies.

*Please note, the university reserves the right to shorten/extend the closing date of any position where a high/low volume of applications are received.
