The School of Education and Psychology are looking to recruit a number of Lecturers in Education and Teacher Training due to the promotion of the current post holders and development of the Education portfolio. We are also seeking to appoint to our part-time hourly paid pool.

The key duties of the role-holder will be to contribute to the delivery, development and administrative support of the Education and Teacher Training courses, which will include the academic and personal support of students.

A first degree and teaching qualification, a teaching training qualification and a master degree in any related area is essential. We are particularly interested in candidates with a science, maths background. A commitment to undertaking a PhD, as well as a teaching qualification and membership of the Higher Education Academy (or willingness to achieve an accredited HEA standard teaching qualification), is a requirement of the post.

The successful candidate should demonstrate a practical awareness of current developments in Teacher Training including developments in CPD and Professional development as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between courses and post compulsory/lifelong learning industry employers. Relevant teaching and course delivery experience is essential, as well as being able to undertake appropriate subject specific research and/or advanced creative practice and/or enterprise activity in the field.

An application form, job description and person specification can be viewed on our website: <http://www.bolton.ac.uk/Vacancies> or requested by email: jobs@bolton.ac.uk. Alternatively, please telephone our 24 hour answering service on extension 3579 (Please leave your home address details). Please remember to quote the position reference number.

Applicants need to be aware that only a completed application form will be considered, unless it is specifically indicated in an advertisement that a CV will be accepted. Where appropriate, you should include a list of all publications when submitting your application. Please ensure you quote the position reference number on all documentation submitted.

If an applicant is interested in more than one vacancy, a separate application form must be submitted for each vacancy to ensure that the individual role requirements are addressed.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK, for more information please visit <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>. No agencies.
