APPLYING FOR THE PART-TIME IN-SERVICE PGDE/PDE, INCLUDING APPLICATIONS THROUGH PARTNER COLLEGES

Eligibility and applicability

To be eligible for the part time in-service course you must be employed as a teacher/lecturer.

For the first year (Phase 1), you need at least 75 hours of appropriate teaching. For the second year (Phase 2), you need at least 75 hours of appropriate teaching.

This would mean you are accepted as in-service. We also have a small number of pre-service part-time places for people who are new to teaching.

Teaching is deemed "appropriate" if it involves you in preparation and planning for the teaching of groups of learners (aged 16 or over) who are following a defined curriculum (e.g. working to a syllabus or the equivalent). You may or may not be paid for this employment, but you do need to have full responsibility for the teaching of the groups involved. If you are in doubt about the applicability of your teaching (we call this "class contact"), discuss this with the centre you apply to.

On receipt of your completed application form the Education department will send you a 'class contact confirmation form' which asks for a signature from an authorised person at your college/organisation confirming your class contact for the necessary number of hours.

Additional informationCert. Ed. and the BA Honours (Professional Development in Education)

Success in the PDE contributes 120 credit points towards the 360 point BA Honours, which you may wish to follow full-time or part-time after completing your PDE. While you are working for your PDE, it may motivate you to know that everything you achieve counts towards your BA Honours.
