Semester ONE Examination 2010/2011
Leisure in Britain: 1919 - 1939
Module No. HIS3035

Answer TWO of the following questions.

1. What was understood as “mass” leisure in the inter-war period and why was this of concern to some social and cultural critics?
2. In what ways might respectability be a useful concept in identifying differentiation in holiday destinations and practices in the inter-war period?
3. Critically assess the extent to which sport reflected cultural and social trends in the period 1919-1939.
4. During the inter-war period there was a consensual desire for a more democratic society and a more widely held sense of citizenship. Critically assess the ways in which developments in leisure helped to fulfil this desire.
