

Application received via University of Bolton application form or UCAS PG

Acknowledgement email sent to you

Application assessed by admissions and academic teams

If applying through work or other experience

If conditions of entry are already met

If awaiting your degree results

Academic team will carry out an interview

If successful at interview

If unsuccessful at interview

Unconditional offer & scholarship letter issued

Conditional offer & scholarship letter issued

You may be offered further application support, an alternative course or application will be declined

You will be given a deadline to respond to guarantee your place and bursary

You will need to accept your offer to guarantee your place and bursary

If conditional offer holder and you do not meet the conditions following results

If your offer was unconditional or you have now met your conditions

You will be invited to enrol prior to the course starting