Welcome

Welcome to the first issue of Shelf Life for this academic year.

New Silent Study Zone

Looking for somewhere quiet to study? The new Silent Study Zone is now open. Last year student feedback requested more silent study space. ‘You Said We Did!’

Bite Size Study Skills.

Need help with study skills? The programme for this years Bite Sized Study Skills sessions are available here:

http://www.bolton.ac.uk/StudentServices/StudentLiaisonOfficers/BiteSize/Home.aspx

Sessions include Harvard Referencing, Essay Writing, Finding Information for Assignments and take place over lunchtime in the Skills for Success Room in the Library.
Resource News

Changes to Resources

We have cancelled our subscriptions via CSA Databases, so if you used any of the resources through CSA come to the Subject Help Desk where staff can advise on any of the alternative databases suitable for your needs.

Scopus is a useful alternative to the CSA Databases for more information, have a look at the Scopus help guide:

Coming Soon…

Discover@Bolton. Discover@Bolton will allow you to search multiple resources at the same time. Keep an eye on the Library website for further news in the coming months!

Where to go for help

You may have noticed in order to accommodate the new Silent Study Zone we have moved the book stock. If you are struggling to find an item, don’t hesitate to ask a member of staff for help.

If you need help with any enquiry in the Library visit one of our Help Desks or if you are off campus and require help you can contact us by telephone and email:
