Are you interested in joining the number one University in Greater Manchester for student satisfaction?

We have an exciting opportunity for a highly motivated, customer-focused person to take responsibility for academic and professional support, liaison and user education within the Faculty of Health and Wellbeing.

We are looking for an experienced, enthusiastic, dynamic and motivated HE and/or Information Professional to join the University at an exciting time in its development.

Reporting to, and working closely with, the Academic Liaison and Collections Senior Team Leader, the post holder will take a more strategic lead in at least one of the following areas: User Education, External Access, Copyright and Data Protection, Research Liaison and support for Referencing.

You will have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, developing and sustaining productive relationships across the institution to ensure the collaborative design, promotion and delivery of library skills, including online, to support student learning and increase usage of library resources.

The successful candidate will maintain a confidential, helpful and cooperative manner when working under pressure. You should be committed to working with a diverse student body and be able to show sensitivity to individual difference. In order to meet the needs of the University and Library Services, a flexible approach to working patterns / hours is an essential requirement of this role.
