The University of Bolton is a “Teaching Intensive, Research Informed” higher education institution whose distinctive high quality, student-focussed, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes attract students from all over the world.

Due to growth in student number we are looking to appoint an ambitious academic who will provide dynamic leadership for academic research and taught programmes across the academic area.

Our staff are at the heart of everything we do: they are highly qualified and experienced in their fields, supporting their teaching practice by carrying out quality research and engaging in continuous professional development. Staff pride themselves on being outstanding professionals that provide excellent learning, teaching and applied research and support in the provision of custom-designed, industry led courses in numerous subject areas.

The key duties of the post holder will be to lead the IOM research strategy, in collaboration with key staff, to ensure innovative programme and curriculum development, resulting in increased student satisfaction and retention. The post holder will also be required to contribute to the teaching and delivery of Professional, undergraduate and taught postgraduate programmes in the area of Business and Accounting

Experience in a Management facing environment and an awareness of current developments in the field are desirable. A first degree is essential to this role, as is a relevant post graduate degree and preferably a teaching qualification.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate a practical awareness of current developments in Business and Accounting Education as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between courses and the range of employers in the sector. We are particularly interested in candidates with specialisms in Data Analytics and Digital Transformation, Accounting, Finance, Economics and Governance, Strategy, Entrepreneurship, Marketing and Management.

Membership of the Higher Education Academy is an essential requirement of the role.
