The University of Bolton is a “Teaching Intensive, Research Informed” higher education institution whose distinctive high quality, student-focussed, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes attract students from all over the world.

Due to growth in our postgraduate education student number we are looking to appoint an ambitious academic who will provide dynamic leadership for taught programmes across the academic area.

Our staff are at the heart of everything we do: they are highly qualified and experienced in their fields, supporting their teaching practice by carrying out quality research and engaging in continuous professional development. Staff pride themselves on being outstanding professionals that provide excellent learning, teaching and applied research and support in the provision of custom-designed, industry led courses in numerous subject areas.

The key duties of the post holder will be to play a key role in supporting, expanding and enhancing the Education subject area. Leading on the development and delivery of a financially sustainable portfolio of undergraduate and post-graduate courses. This will involve collaboration with key staff, to ensure innovative programme and curriculum development, resulting in increased student satisfaction and retention. The post holder will also be required to contribute to the teaching and delivery of Professional, undergraduate and taught postgraduate programmes in the area of Education.

Applicants should have experience of working in Compulsory or Further Education and Higher Education and should demonstrate an awareness of current developments in the field. The successful candidate will also evidence applied research outputs. A higher degree (Doctorate or PHD) is essential to this role, as is a relevant teaching qualification.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate a practical awareness of current developments in Education as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between courses and the range of employers in the sector.

Membership of the Higher Education Academy is an essential requirement of the role.
