Are you interested in joining the number one University in Greater Manchester for student satisfaction?

The University of Bolton has set out on an ambitious enhancement agenda as a 'teaching intensive, research informed' University. Over the last 18 months the University has seen rapid expansion with the merger of Bolton College, Lancashire Outdoors Activities Initiative, and Alliance Learning; it has also established its own trading subsidiary.

The University is looking to recruit two Senior Accountancy Assistants to assist in the financial management, control and reporting of the University and its subsidiaries. Reporting to the Management Accountant, you will be required to advise managers in the University as well as subsidiaries, and, by working closely with the finance team, assist in preparing, managing and controlling the Group's financial planning, budget accounting, and external financial reporting; which will involve liaison between the finance function, academic groups, University services, partner organisations.

You will be responsible for the financial administration of the Capital Programme, and assist with Research, and Other Grants and Contracts; and in preparing regular and ad-hoc reports for the Management Accountant. In addition, you will assist in preparing a detailed annual budget for the University and its subsidiaries, together with detailed management account statements for each to show their financial performance against budget. You will also assist in producing mandatory returns (such as OfS and TRAC) as required.

You must be a qualified Accounting Technician with at least 2 years PQE, although this does not have to be within the Higher Education sector with experience of working with grant funded projects. This is a fantastic opportunity for someone looking to enhance their experience by transferring to the higher education sector.
