The University of Bolton is a “Teaching Intensive, Research Informed” higher education institution whose distinctive high quality, student-focussed, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes attract students from all over the world.

Due to growth in student number we are looking to appoint an ambitious academic who will deliver excellent teaching and student support across the area of Psychology, Psychotherapy and Counselling .

Our staff are at the heart of everything we do: they are highly qualified and experienced in their fields, supporting their teaching practice by carrying out quality research and engaging in continuous professional development. Staff pride themselves on being outstanding professionals that provide excellent learning, teaching and applied research and support in the provision of custom-designed, industry led courses in numerous subject areas.

We are looking to recruit to a full-time post at either lecturer or senior lecturer level, dependent upon experience. The duties of the post holder will be in line with the relevant job role and person specification requirements. At senior lecturer level there will be programme leadership requirements for the successful applicant.

In addition to being able to teach across core areas of psychology at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, we welcome applications from:

-Candidates who hold BACP Accredited membership and are currently in counselling practise/ HCPC registered/ BPS Chartered Counselling Psychologist. Or candidates who are Registered with BACP, currently in supervised counselling practise and able to fulfil BACP accreditation requirements (over 450 supervised hours).
