We are currently looking to recruit passionate and professional Outdoor Activity Instructor to join the team here at the Anderton Centre for the 2021 season and beyond.

The Anderton Centre is Lancashire Outdoor Activities Initiative (LOAI) residential outdoor activity and conferencing facility. The Centre is situated in the shores of the beautiful Rivington Reservoir in the heart of the West Pennine Moors.

The Centre is only a short drive from the motorway networks, so is able to serve many regions of the North West and the location boast superb water facilities and a rural setting ideal for a wide range of land activities. Since 2009 LOAI a registered charity has been solely responsible for the facility.

The organisation has entered a significant period of development, through its collaboration with the University of Bolton. This includes delivering across multiple sites, and investment in facilities. The main function of the role will be to plan, lead, and deliver programs of Outdoor Education to a wide range of clients including primary schools, high schools, FE, corporate, community groups, voluntary organisations and general public.

This is a unique opportunity for the right candidate to play an active role in the future success of the Charity, and in return we offer a fantastic setting and great opportunities for continued professional development.

How to apply;

Please in send a current CV, and covering letter outlining suitability for the role to the Head of Centre. FTO Mr David Germain info@andertoncentre.co.uk
