Are you interested in joining the number one University in Greater Manchester for student satisfaction?

At the University of Bolton, we are proud of our growing reputation as a student focussed University.
With our strategy of "Teaching Intensive, Research Informed" we are committed to offering our students the best experience possible. Due to our ongoing growth, we are now looking for a Work-based Apprenticeship Trainer to support apprentices in the workplace on Operating Department Practitioner Programmes. On a day-to-day basis, you will be involved in delivering learning support to apprentices and employers at the student's place of employment.

Experience of working with employers and apprentices and a sound understanding of the delivery of apprenticeships is desirable.

The successful candidate should demonstrate a practical awareness of current developments in practise based nurse education and as well as being able to travel regionally and nationally on a frequent basis as an essential requirement of the role.

NMC registration is an essential requirement for this role, as is having DBS clearance.

We ask a lot from our staff but in return, you will receive a competitive benefits package including access to the Local Government Pension Scheme, an employee benefits scheme and generous annual leave entitlement. You will be working with the University to support and deliver the best student experience possible.

For an informal chat about the various opportunities please contact Simon Booth, Employee Experience & Resourcing Officer on 01204 903503 or s.booth@bolton.ac.uk.
