The University of Bolton has embarked on an ambitious enhancement agenda as a “teaching intensive, research informed” University. Its robust financial position and recent achievements put the University in a good position to capitalise on the challenges and opportunities of the current HE environment.

The Faculty of Health and Wellbeing are looking to recruit a Lecturer in Health & Social Care to join an enthusiastic and pro-active team.

The key duties of the role-holder will be to lead and contribute to the delivery, development, research and administrative support of Health programmes, which will include the academic and personal support of students.

A higher degree in a relevant subject area is essential in addition to relevant professional qualifications and registration with a relevant professional regulatory body, for example, the NMC.

The successful candidate should demonstrate an awareness of current developments and priorities in health as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between academic and research initiatives and relevant stakeholders. Relevant teaching and programme delivery experience, as well as being able to undertake appropriate subject specific research and/or advanced creative practice and/or enterprise activity is essential.

Applicants are also welcome for those candidates interested in part-time hours.

An application form, job description and person specification can be viewed on our website: <https://www.bolton.ac.uk/places/professional-services/hr/vacancies> or requested by email: jobs@bolton.ac.uk. Alternatively, please telephone our 24 hour answering service on extension 3579 (Please leave your home address details). Please remember to quote the position reference number.

Applicants need to be aware that only a completed application form will be considered, unless it is specifically indicated in an advertisement that a CV will be accepted. Where appropriate, you should include a list of all publications when submitting your application. Please ensure you quote the position reference number on all documentation submitted.

If an applicant is interested in more than one vacancy, a separate application form must be submitted for each vacancy to ensure that the individual role requirements are addressed.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK, for more information please visit <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>. No agencies.

*Please note, the university reserves the right to shorten/extend the closing date of any position where a high/low volume of applications are received.
