Applications are also invited for those interested in part-time hours and/or Variable Hours Tutor opportunities.

The University of Bolton is a "Teaching Intensive, Research Informed" higher education institution whose distinctive high quality, student-focussed, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes attract students from all over the world.

Our staff are at the heart of everything we do: they are highly qualified and experienced in their fields, supporting their teaching practice by carrying out quality research and engaging in continuous professional development. Staff pride themselves on being outstanding professionals that provide excellent learning, teaching and applied research and support in the provision of custom-designed, industry led courses in numerous subject areas.

The key duties of the post holder will be to contribute to the delivery and administrative support of undergraduate and postgraduate Physiotherapy modules, which will include the academic and personal support of students.

You will have a first degree in Physiotherapy and have Chartered Society of Physiotherapy (CSP) membership and be registered with the Health Care Professions Council (HCPC). The successful candidate should be a current practicing clinician and offer insight into applying their clinical knowledge into teaching. Ideally you will hold a teaching qualification and have membership of the Higher Education Academy.

The successful candidate should demonstrate an awareness of the current developments in Physiotherapy as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between academic/research initiatives and employers.

The role is part-time (0.5 fte) which equates to 18.5 hours per week.
