The School of Sport & Biomedical Sciences are looking to recruit a Lecturer in Cardiorespiratory Physiotherapy.

The key duties of the post holder will be to contribute to the delivery and administrative support of undergraduate and postgraduate Physiotherapy modules, which will include the academic and personal support of students.

You will have a first degree in Physiotherapy and have Chartered Society of Physiotherapy (CSP) membership and be registered with the Health Care Professions Council (HCPC). The successful candidate should be a current practicing clinician and offer insight into applying their clinical knowledge into teaching. Ideally, you will hold a teaching qualification and have membership of the Higher Education Academy (HEA).

The successful candidate should demonstrate an awareness of current developments in Physiotherapy as well as being able to facilitate the creation and maintenance of a range of links between academic and research initiatives and employers.

An application form, job description and person specification can be viewed on our website: <https://www.bolton.ac.uk/places/professional-services/hr/vacancies/> or requested by email: jobs@bolton.ac.uk. Alternatively, please telephone our 24 hour answering service on 01204 903579 (Please leave your home address details). Please remember to quote the position reference number.

Applicants need to be aware that only a completed application form will be considered, unless it is specifically indicated in an advertisement that a CV will be accepted. Where appropriate, you should include a list of all publications when submitting your application. Please ensure you quote the position reference number on all documentation submitted.

If an applicant is interested in more than one vacancy, a separate application form must be submitted for each vacancy to ensure that the individual role requirements are addressed.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK, for more information please visit <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>. No agencies.

*Please note, the university reserves the right to shorten/extend the closing date of any position where a high/low volume of applications are received.
